THE BELLS ARE RINGING

The Bells are ringing for the annual Christmas Fair at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church vestry, sponsored by the Women's Community Guild. Two bells will be the symbol of the Fair and this theme will be carried out in the planning of the Fair. December 3rd is the date, so set this day aside for your day at the Fair, where you will meet your friends for a coffee hour or luncheon, and do your Christmas shopping. Not only will there be unusual gifts for Christmas giving, but you will be able to buy Christmas decorations for your homes. Attic treasures will be among the many items on sale, and what may be someone's attic treasure could be a treasure for use in your home. Other items to be on sale will be dolls and toys, gifts, decorations, aprons, plants, children's grabs, second hand jewelry and homemade foods and candies. Be sure to bring the children as children's movies will be shown throughout the day.

Remember the date - December 3rd, 1957 from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. Come and spend the day, and help to ring the bells for the Christmas Fair.

A coffee hour for all Fair chairmen was held on Monday morning at the home of the general chairman, Mrs. Marshall Ross.

LITERATURE-DRAMA GROUP HAS MEETING

"By Love Possessed" by James Gould Cozzens and "On the Beach" by Nevile Shute, two current best sellers, were discussed and reviewed last Tuesday when fifteen members of the Literature-Drama group of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Dunn of Church Street. It was agreed by the majority that both books were well worth reading, with both supplying a great deal of thought for the reader.

The next meeting of the group will be held on Thursday, December 5th, at the home of Mrs. Linwood Lewis of Acushnet Road. At this time members will bring a short Christmas story or poem to be read.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. James I. Brackett, Jr. and Mrs. Donald C. Jason.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Enclosed is a copy of the original poem written by my husband's grandfather, Mr. Frederick R. Eldridge, who lived in Mattapoisett and is remembered for several such writings.

Since November 27th marks the anniversary of this event, I thought you might like to place it in the Presto when the time comes.

Sincerely yours,

LOSS OF THE STEAMER "PORTLAND"
By Cap. Frederick R. Eldridge
Chatham, Cape Cod

On the 27th of November
In the year of '98,
A northeast blizzard swept the sea,
Death following in its wake.
And many good ships foundered,
Or were dashed on the coast;
And only broken timbers,
To show how they were lost.

The clouds were dark and threatening,
The "glass" was falling low;
The Weather Bureau signals
Fortold a stronger blow,
When the steamer Portland left her dock,
Went proudly down the bay,
With over one hundred souls on board,
Oh where! Oh where are they?

Why did the captain leave that night,
Ten thousand voices cry,
Unheedful of such warning;
But there is no one to reply,
He went, he met the blizzard,
No earthly power could save;
And the once fine steamer Portland
Now lies quiet 'neath the wave.

Of all the crew and passenger,
Not one to tell the tale;
While friends ashore they watch
And wait, and bitterly bewail
The loss of friends so dear to them,
Who lately left the main
And went out on that dismal night,
To ne'er return again.

Who can conceive the anguish
Of that storm-tossed helpless crew?
We hear them cry, "God save us!"
Our help rests all on you!
And God looked down upon,
Softly whispered, "Come to me."
Great angry waves broke o'er the ship;
She sang beneath the sea.

The news was spread the world around
Through country and through city.
It filled the hearts of young and old
With horror and with pity.
But if the prayer of them all
In one could be combined,
It would not bring back the loved
Ones to friends they left behind.

We feel it's well for those that's gone,
Their troubles all are o'er;

May 20th. Wednesday the snowstorm abates and the wind hauls around N with thick snow squalls at night. We spoke the ship ONTARIO of Sag Harbor with two whales this season. They got them in March on Melishers Banks. Four whale besides is all they have heard of that has been taken this season. They report whales wild and scarce. They report the loss of the Ship COLUMBIA of New London on the Kingsmill Group of Islands with 2500 barrels of oil. She is a total loss.

May 21st. Thursday the first part of the day the wind is N.W. The latter part S W with snow. The wind is light all day. We saw two right whales today. At noon we saw one that showed a chance to strike. Three boats lowered. The waist boat went on to him and the boat steerer missed. Soon after he came up near the ship again. The quarter boats lowered. The Starboard one went on and fastened. He ran off to windward. After awhile the other boats got up with him. He was soon killed. We got him alongside at 6 P.M. and finished cutting him in at 11 at night. He proves to be a dry skin and is worthless all except the head of bone. The waist boat went on second boat and fastened. The whale came alongside and the boat steerer Cyrus Follet and two others jumped overboard. Mr. Lyons cut the line and picked them up.

May 22nd, Friday. The first part of the day the wind is moderate with snow from S.W. The latter part strong gales from N.W. by W. with snow squalls. Today we throw our whale overboard. It is worthless except the head.

May 23rd. Saturday is pleasant with moderate gales from N and N.N.E. In the morning we saw 2 right whales. They were in motion. At 10 we saw one and lowered. The Larboard quarter boat got fast. We got him alongside at noon and cut him in. We saw several spouts at a distance this afternoon. We likewise saw two sail. The whale we took today was an old ugly bull. The way he handled himself was not lazy. While dying he sounded. We thought he was sinking. He came up sweeping and lashing the water with his flukes. I could not get out of the way only be going overboard. We start the try works.

May 24th. Sunday the wind is moderate from S.W. till 10 A.M. Then it comes more to the southward with a thick snowstorm. The wind blows strong and we take in sail at 1 P.M. We saw 2 right whales to windward a long way off. There is 2 sail in sight. The snow falls 8 hours, then some snow squalls.

May 25th. Monday the wind blows strong with no whale weather. It veers from S.W to N. with snow squalls.

May 26th. Tuesday the wind is moderate from W. S. W. the first part of the day, the latter part it blows fresh from S.W. by W. We saw 4 right whales. At half past 6 A.M. we saw a whale one mile to windward. We lowered three boats and chased him a long time. The waist boat finally struck him. day with moderate gales from W.S.W. The wind is strong the first part of the day. We stow down our whale of the 23rd. He makes 116 barrels. No observation.

May 28th. Thursday the wind is moderate from W.S.W. with thick fog all day except 2 hours in the afternoon. We keep the try works a going.

May 29th. Friday the wind blows strong from W.N.W. with heavy snow squalls and no whale weather. We stow down oil in the after hatch. Our whale of the 26th will make 120 barrels.

May 30th. Saturday is clear with sunshine the most of the day. The wind blows strong from W.N.W. to N. with a rough sea. We stow down the last of our oil in the after hatch. We gum and stow down our bone in the fore hold.

May 31st. Sunday begins with fresh gales from N.E. which last through the day. This morning our rigging is covered with ice caused by the fog of last night. At daylight we saw a bark to windward. She ran down and spoke us. It proved to be the NEWBURYPORT, Capt. Gray. He reports 2 whale, one a dry skin. He reports Capt. Beck and the ATLANTIC of New London nothing this season.

June, 1846 - Off Kamskatska

June 1st. Monday the wind blows strong from NE with a little sickly sunshine. The weather is verry cold and disagreeable. We have seen no rt. whale since the 26th of May. Now we are bound to the Northward and Eastward.

June 2nd. Tuesday the wind is light from NE the first part of the day. We carry sail this night heading ENE. We saw a whale blow near the ship and supposed it to be a sulphur-bottom or rt. whale. It was dark at the time. The wind hauls to the North the latter part of the day and we have snow squalls at times. We have seen whales of no kind today up to 4 P.M.

June 3rd. Wednesday the wind is light and unsteady from N to WSW with squalls of snow.

DO YOU WANT TO ENJOY YOURSELF?

It's not hard; just plan on going to the Record Hop to be held at the Mattapoisett Center School all-purpose room this Friday night. Fun for young and old will be had at this affair, to be sponsored by your Parent-Teachers Club.

An evening of dancing is always an evening of fun; one is never too old nor too young to dance. Try the rock and roll, fox trot, waltz or name your own dance and others will follow.

If you don't dance, plan to attend and watch. You may win one of the twenty-five records to be given as door prizes or your Thanksgiving turkey. See you at the school on Friday, November 22nd, starting at 8 P.M. and ending at 12.

CAMPAING FOR CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL GOES OVER MILLION MARK

The total of the Catholic Memorial High School building fund was pushed to $1,107,528, as the campaign workers completed their first week's report Wednesday evening in Mt. Carmel hall. The men volunteers stood for nearly one minute to applaud the efforts of the St. James committee, who were the first to surpass their parish goal. St. James has reached the figure of $133,550, more than $23,00 over their minimum target.

Congratulations were extended to the men by Rt. Rev. James J. Gerrard, vicar general of the diocese, who represented His Excellency, Most Rev. James L. Connolly, Bishop of Fall River. Msgr. Gerrard praised the men for their success to date, and urged them to continue working hard for the next three weeks.

Dr. Arthur F. Buckley, general chairman, reminded the men that although the campaing goal is $1,500,000, it is only the minimum amount needed.

Very Rev. Hugh A. Gallagher, campaign moderator, requested that all the men attend the report meetings. He said, "Let's make this next report even better than the first one, now that we are all seasoned veterans in this work. Every pastor should call his captains to insure that the men are out making their calls this week." He announced that the parish totals to date are: St. Casimir, $3,960; St. Anthony of Padua, $38,238; Immaculate Conception, $28,830; Our Lady of Perpetual Help, $17,013; St. Francis Xavier, $12,400; St. Boniface, $4,480; Holy Rosary, $240; St. Joseph, $86,242; St. Kilian, $16,008; St. Mary, $34,715; St. Theresa, $37,340; St. Lawrence, $112,673; Holy Name, $69,825; Sacred Heart, $29,608; St. Mary (Fairhaven), $5,460; Sacred Hearts (Fairhaven), $6,560; St. Anne, $24,296; St. John the Baptist, $66,160; Mt. Carmel, $40,440; St. Hyacinth, $16,184; Our Lady of Purgatory, $10,500; St. Hedwig, $8,

We saw 1 rt. whale and lowered twice for him. He was so shy that we could not get nigh him.

June 4th. Thursday we took in sail last night. The wind is fresh from WSW with plenty of snow in squalls. The weather is cold and cloudy. We spoke the ship NEVA of Green Port with 3 whales this season. We saw three rt. whales in the morning. They were a going to windward as if hurried by the devil. At 2 P.M. we saw 2 more. The boats lowered and the larboard boat struck him. He did not show much chance for killing. We turned him up after being fast to him 5 hours. We got him alongside at 7 P.M. and conclude to let him lie till morning. No obs'n.

June 5th. Friday the wind is strong from W by S. At 3 in the morning we call all hands, get breakfast and hook on to the whale alongside, wear ship and cut him in to leeward. It is rather rough cutting. We get him cut in at half past 10 A.M. and make sail on the ship with double reefed topsails. We cut with a close main and the main topsail clewed up. We start the try works at noon. At 4 P.M. we saw 2 rt. whales and lowered for them but did not get high them. There is also one sail in sight. We are visited by a couple of beautiful land birds somewhat like sparrows. They hop and flit about and make themselves quite at home. They are the personification of innocence.
